Utah General and Master Class Falconers:

The application period for taking an eyas Peregrine ended on Thursday, February 26th this year. Unfortunately, the 2009 information was not sent or posted on our web site for you to apply and I apologize. Because of this oversight we will be accepting applications until May 4, 2009 end of business. So, if you want to take an eyas Peregrine this coming season, get your application in by then. The overall schedule then is as follows:

Application Deadline:	May 4, 2009
Draw (If necessary):	May 5, 2009
Notifications Mailed Out:	May 5, 2009

Only General and Master Class Falconers may apply for an eyas Peregrine, and dates for the 2009 take season are May 2, May 9, and May 13 thru June 30. Additional information is available on the UDWR web site at http://www.wildlife.utah.gov/proclamations/2007_falconry/index.

Should you have questions, please contact Anita Candelaria (801) 538-4785 or Celia Bunnell (801) 538-4784.

Sincerely,

Jimmie R. Parrish, Ph.D.
Avian Program Coordinator

The $10.00 handling fee is non-refundable and must be included when submitting application. The capture permit fee will be collected from successful applicants at time of purchase.

Season Dates: The first two Saturdays of May and from May 13, unless May 13 is a Sunday, in which case the season will begin the following day through June 30.

Area Open: Beaver, Iron, Washington, Piute, Wayne, Garfield, Kane, and San Juan counties and the area south of Interstate 70 in Grand, Emery and Sevier counties.

Restrictions and Requirements:

- 1) A nestling may not be removed from its nest prior to 10 days of age.
- 2) Nests may not be entered when young are 28 days or more of age.
- 3) Recently fledged young may be trapped within 100 meters of the nest.
- 4) A Fledgling may be trapped for up to 30 days after fledging.
- 5) Each falconer who takes a nestling from the wild must report the sex and precise information about the capture location for each bird to the Utah Division of Wildlife Resources (UDWR) and to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Services (USFWS) within five days of the take. If the falconer determines after submitting the information about the sex of the bird from the initial report was incorrect, the report to the UDWR and the USFWS should be corrected.

Other restrictions may apply on some public lands. Successful applicants should check with these public land agencies for more information prior to capturing or attempting to capture nestling Peregrine Falcons from these lands. You must obtain prior written approval from landowner or authorized agent for entry onto private lands.

APPLICATION MUST BE SIGNED: All statements on this form are true and correct. I understand that if I subscribe to any false statement on this application, I am subject to criminal prosecution.
